

Project Overview

As of September 17, 2015

Columbus Police Forensics Services Center

Description:

Construction of a new 34,000 S.F. Forensic Service Center for the Division of Police. Forensic testing performed will include drug identification, firearms testing and comparisons, forensic biology and DNA analysis, latent print processing, and questioned documents examination.

Status:

Design:

start

December 2011

completion

May 2013

Construction:

start

August 2013

completion

March 2015

Costs:

Design contract

$2,000,000

Construction contract

$11,942,540

LEED Certification Level:

None. Mayors Green memo incorporated.

Contact Information:

City Project Manager

John Hanson

645-4822

JJHanson@columbus.gov

Design Architect

Mull & Weithman Architects.
McClaren, Wilson & Lawrie
Architects and planners

Construction Contractor

Thomas & Marker Construction